
Curry night!

OK, who is for a curry on the Saturday night??

It really was a great laugh at the last Retrofusion event! Archer came along - and is a really great chap and Martyn Carroll (he of the original Retro Gamer) was also there - and really is a great guy!

It was a real highlight - so would be essential to do it again;)

Who's for it then?

Yep, myself and the missus will be up for a curry.

Probably Mug and Thecko also.
